

View from Cei Llydan towards Snowdonia Mountains
Yr olygfa o Gei Llydan tuag at mynyddoedd Eryri

Llyn Padarn a mynyddoedd Eryri yn y gaeaf
 Lake Padarn and the Snowdonia mountains in Winter

1. Llyn Padarn – Lake Padarn
(104m – 340ft above sea level, and 29m at its deepest)
2. Elidir Fawr
(924m – 3031ft Dinorwic Slate Quarry is on Elidir Fawr)
3. Rheilffordd Llyn Padarn – Llanberis Lake Railway
(Opened 1971 on the 1842 Padarn Railway route to Felinheli / Port Dinorwic)
4. Coed Dinorwig – Dinorwig Woods
(Ancient oak woodland)
5. Bwlch Llanberis Pass
(A4086 route between Capel Curig and Llanberis)
6. Castell Dolbadarn Castle
(Built by Llywelyn the Great circa 1230)
7. The Lady of Snowdon – Brenhines yr Wyddfa
(Look closely, you'll see a lady's face in profile in the rock formation)
8. Crib Goch
(923m – 3028ft)
9. Tryfan
(580m – 1902ft One of three Tryfan's in the locality)
10. Garnedd Ugain & Crib y Ddisgyl
(1065m – 3494ft Despite appearances Snowdon is higher)
11. Derlwyn
(416m – 1365ft)
12. Yr Wyddfa – Snowdon
(1085m – 3560ft The highest point in England & Wales)
13. Clogwyn Du'r Arddu
(First ever recorded mountaineering expedition was here in 1798)
14. Bwlch Cwm Brwynog
(498m – 1634ft)
15. Llwybr Llanberis Path
(To Snowdon Summit – I gopa'r Wyddfa)
16. Pentref Llanberis Village
(Population 1954 – of which 81% are fluent Welsh speakers)
17. Moel Cynghorion
(674m – 2211ft)
18. Bwlch Maesgwm
(467m – 1532ft, path over to Snowdon Ranger in Gwyrfal Valley)
19. Cefn Drum
(409m – 1342ft)
20. Foel Goch
(605m – 1985ft)
21. Cwm Dwythwch
(blind valley headed by Foel Gron at 593m – 1946ft)
22. Moel Eilio
(726m – 2382ft)

Castell Dolbadarn
 Dolbadarn Castle

Brenhines yr Wyddfa
 The Lady of Snowdon